VILLA READY TO SERVE MEXICO

Will Quit Country if Action Will Bring Peace to War-Harassed Republic

GUTIERREZ ON WAY TAKE OVER GOVERNMENT REINS

Appeals to United States for Approval of Acts of Peace Conference

EL PASO, Nov. 16.—The news that General Villa has agreed to sacrifice all his personal desires for the peace of Mexico and will soon leave the country, was contained in a telegram today from General Gutierrez, recently chosen provisional president, to Enrique Lorente, his diplomatic agent here.

Gutierrez personally submitted to Villa Carranza's recent offer to resign and expatriate himself if Villa would leave Mexico. The telegram said:

"Villa has agreed to this, saying he is willing to do anything that will bring peace to Mexico."
Gutierrez and the delegates to the Agua Calientes peace conference, expected to start for Mexico City tonight to arrange for the transfer of the government.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—General Gutierrez, named president of Mexico by the peace conference, has asked the American government to approve the acts of the Agua Calientes peace conference and to evacuate Vera Cruz.

"The Mexican republic during the last few years," he said in a letter sent today through his agents here, "has undergone a terrible crisis in which the democratic ideas of government and the yearning of the people for justice and economic improvement have finally been vindicated. Civil strife has been finally ended with the overthrow of the Huerta government."

The Gutierrez letter recited immediate plans for a new government, promising care and attention for foreigners and their interests.

Planning for a Big Ratification Banquet

The friends of Governor Johnson in Southern California, and supporters of progressive principles generally, are planning for a big ratification banquet at Los Angeles next Friday evening, November 20. Governor Johnson and nearly all of the state officers-elect will be in attendance and big delegations from all over Southern California are making reservations.

TETZLAFF MAY BE IN CORONA RACE

Despite Statement He Would Never Compete Again, Report He Will Enter Big Event

It is rumored that Teddy Tetzlaff, the former Orange boy, holder of the world's road race record, may be induced to change his decision to retire from the racing game and to enter the Corona race on Thanksgiving Day to defend his title.

Says the Los Angeles Examiner: Immediately after the accident at Kalamazoo, in which he was severely injured, and which nearly cost the life of his mechanic, Tetzlaff declared that he would never again participate in an automobile race.

Race drivers stated that the world's record will be raised at the Corona race, and that the cars entered are the fastest machines ever assembled in Southern California.

The Maxwell team entered by the Lord Motor Company consists of two special cars, and only one driver, Billy Carlson, has been named. It is believed by some that the conference between Harry Lord and the manager of the team will result in Tetzlaff being persuaded to accept his old post on the Maxwell team.

HAWKEYE BUSINESS MEN TOUR STATE IN MOTORS

DES MOINES, Nov. 16.—To carry out plans for the Greater Iowa Association which has divided the state into thirty districts, business men are touring the state today in autos engineering a business revival, pointing out the advantages of Iowa as an agricultural state and fighting the decrease in population shown by the last census. Following this week's work a meeting of the association is to be held November 26 at which a program for a business revival will be mapped out. The work is in charge of President W. W. Marsh of Waterloo, Horace E. Deemer of Red Oak and Woods' worth Clum of Clinton.

ANCIENT IVORIES SHOW MARCELLED COIFFURES

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—Three society ladies of Abydos, Egypt, have come to the University of Pennsylvania to show that the pendulum of fashion has swung as far back as 550 B. C.

Beautifully carved in ivory, the visitors show that marcelling was the mode then, not only where the hair rests snugly on the head, but where it flows free over the shoulders. Still more striking are the scant skirts that cling about the ankles, while tunics sweep out from the hips.

Professor Flinders Petrie sent the images.

LONG BEACH PIONEER DIES AT AGE OF 74

FOOD SUPPLIES BE SHIPPED FRIDAY

All Donations Must Be at Smith Feed Store by Thursday Evening

SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE POURING IN RAPIDLY

Santa Ana Will Contribute a Large Share of Foodstuffs to Cause

Food supplies for the relief of the Belgians will be shipped from Santa Ana Friday morning, it was announced today by the Chamber of Commerce Belgian Relief Committee having the work in charge. The ship which will carry the foodstuffs is scheduled to leave San Pedro either Friday or Saturday and it is absolutely imperative that all goods be at the R. R. Smith feed store, corner West Fourth and Birch streets, by Thursday evening.

Owing to the short length of time remaining for completing the collection of supplies it has been found impossible for the members of the local relief committee to personally solicit subscriptions. All persons desiring to aid the cause should send in their supplies to the R. R. Smith feed store or leave checks at the Chamber of Commerce. All checks will be used for the purchase of supplies.

It should be remembered that the supplies most needed by the committee are non-perishable stuffs, such as beans, dried fruits, flour and other products of like nature. Delicacies cannot be used.

Donations are coming in rapidly. It is now thought that in proportion to the population Santa Ana will be able to contribute as many supplies to each of the other cities in California aiding in the relief work.

TROOPS SUFFER TERRIBLY IN BELGIUM

Feel Rigors of Storm, Hunger and Epidemic; England Critical; More Funds Asked

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Climatic conditions everywhere have reduced the forces of the allies in Belgium to such a state of misery that the British and French war officers were seriously worried today. Fierce gales, chilling rains and snow drizzles have been almost constant for days. The troops are suffering terribly and it is impossible to keep the men dry. There is grave danger of epidemics. Winter supplies and clothing have been rushed to the front, but despite all efforts, the suffering of the men is growing.

The Germans are reported as experiencing even greater hardships. Supply wagons have been mired, while the hungry troops have been compelled to submit to incessant shelling by the guns of the allies though unable to seek better shelter on account of the condition of the roads.

No official confirmation has been received of the report that the allies recaptured Dixmude last week. Naval reverses and reports of the loss of the Canopus and the Audacious are furnishing the public much material for gossip and speculation. The admiralty is being soundly berated by amateur strategists, but enlistments are reported as increasing rapidly.

Premier Asquith today told the House of Commons that the war up to Saturday had cost Great Britain $5,000,000 daily above normal expenditures, and asked the Commons for an additional credit of $1,250,000,000.

The House of Commons tonight unanimously granted the war credit. Premier Asquith asked, and also granted authority to raise one million additional troops.

Complete Revolution in Uncle Sam's Currency System Marked by Institution

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Advices to the Treasury Department from the twelve cities where regional reserve banks opened today indicated that all preparations for business were complete and that all the banks were opened according to schedule.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The biggest bank the world has ever seen, the Federal Reserve Bank, capital stock $20,000,000, designed to prevent panics and give elasticity to our currency, opened its doors for business today. In twelve cities, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Richmond, Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Dallas and San Francisco, the regional banks formally began their work. In every city and most every town of the country, banks formally became members of the Federal Reserve Bank system.

The inauguration of the Federal Reserve Bank today marks a complete revolution in Uncle Sam's currency system. Its builders claim it will keep too much money from flowing into all street to the detriment of the rest of the country, enable one section of the country to better aid the business of another section in time of need, strengthen credit in times of stress, and this, by keeping the money supply evenly distributed and more easily available, cure the country on the panic disease which has been recurring about every 20 years for the past century.

For the Average Person

The way it is going to affect the average person is something like this: If John Smith in Kansas has a wheat crop that he wishes to move and if Kansas is short of money, then the Federal Reserve Board will aid the Kansas City Regional Bank in getting money at any or all of the other eleven regional banks. It may be that Atlanta hasn't the money to spare, or that New York may be financing foreign shipments, or that Boston needs her money for the mills, but San Francisco may have plenty of cash to spare. If so, then the San Francisco money will be used to move the wheat crop in Kansas, the entire system of credit being so co-ordinated and linked together as to have banks act as a unit in helping each other, so that there should never be a stringency of currency as has happened many times in the past, but that the entire resources of the whole country should be ready on demand to help any needy section.

The new banking and currency act, approved by the President on December 23, 1913, replaces the system known as the National banking system, inaugurated towards the end of the Civil war. Under the old system, the national bank note currency was based upon government bonds deposited in the treasury and the currency thus issued has been classed by economists as bonds secured currency. This plan was evolved, not only to nationalize and to unify the currency—which had heretofore consisted of notes issued by state banks—but as well to create a market for United States bonds, and in this way to sustain their value. It was successful only in the latter purpose, but it was its usefulness as a banking term because of its entire lack of elasticity.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—The twelfth federal reserve bank, in charge of Archibald Kains, was opened at 9 o'clock this morning in the Merchants' National Bank building. Behind the counters lay $1,350,000, the capital with which the bank opened business.

Trio of British Warships Disabled, Germans Claim

BERLIN (wireless via Sayville), Nov. 16.—German guns on the Belgian coast have disabled the British cruisers Falcon, Brilliant and Rinaldo, according to an official statement issued today.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Replying to questions asked in the House of Commons concerning reports of the loss of the British battleship Canopus, First Lord of the Admiralty Winston Churchill said today:

"We have every reason to believe the Canopus is safe."
Churchill's announcement contained the first intimation that there was any real question regarding the safety of the Canopus. Instead of allaying the alarm it immediately gave rise to the belief the Admiralty is fearful that the vessel has met disaster. The Canopus was dispatched to reinforce Sir Christopher Cradock's squadron off the Chilean coast. Supposedly it had not joined Cradock and his fleet before the squadron was destroyed by Admiral Spee's German fleet.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Though the Admiralty still refuses to admit that the battleship Audacious was recently sunk by a German mine in the North Sea, the public has generally accepted the report as being a fact. Public sentiment against the conduct of the Admiralty department is finding expression in the streets. Opinion is apparently growing that the English fleet is not giving a satisfactory account of itself.

Prince Louis of Battenburg resigned on Oct. 29 as Sea Lord, two days after the Audacious was reported as mined. It was declared at that time that the resignation was the result of criticism because of his German birth. Reports are persistently circulated here today that the Audacious disaster was responsible for his resignation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—No official word has been received from London as to the fate of the British battleship Audacious which is reported as having struck a mine in the North Sea and foundered. The New York office of the United Press sent a carefully worded message to the London bureau hoping to pass the censor, and received the following reply:

"The best information available indicates that the Audacious is undergoing repairs."

FLAGS HALF MAST FOR BELOVED 'BOBS'

Nation Mourns Warrior Who Died Saturday in France; Body to Lie in State

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Flags are at half-mast and signs of mourning are seen everywhere today, for Lord Roberts, familiarly known as "Bobs," who Saturday died of pneumonia in France. His body is expected to arrive here tonight or tomorrow. Present plans are for the body to lie in state at Westminster, though the widow of the warrior desires no ceremony.

It is understood to have been the wish of Lord Roberts that he be buried in All Saints church graveyard in Ascot, close to his home.

Lord Roberts' death came as a sudden shock to the British nation. Every one, from King to peasant, idolized "Bobs" with a personal affection.

DE WET'S REBELLION IS BROKEN IN SOUTH AFRICA

JOHANNESBURG, Nov. 16.—The backbone of the Free State rebellion has been broken and the scattered bands of malignants, including General De Wet, are being closely pursued by General Badenhorst. General Botha's successes against Van Collo and Kirstein, respectively, greatly disheartened the rebels.

REGIMENT OF GERMANS DROWN

Opening of Belgian Sluices Fatal; German Operations Halted by Floods

WEATHER CONDITIONS ON COAST ARE FRIGHTFUL

Torrents of Rain Falling; Belgian Battlefield is Morass; Trenches Water-Filled

PARIS, Nov. 16.—An entire German regiment was drowned by the sudden re-opening of sluices in northwestern Belgium, according to official communication sent out today from the Bordeaux war office. German operations in the vicinity of Dixmude have been rendered impossible, the report said, since the district is under water from Dixmude to the vicinity of Bixchoote.

A fierce gale continued to sweep the coast today. Torrents of rain have been falling along the western end of the fighting line. The entire Belgian battlefield is a morass. Advances early today declared that some troop movements had been attempted, but the men foundered in the bogs and many of the maneuvers were abandoned. Such fighting as was possible under the conditions continued in the Yser region. The big guns already placed, maintained a terrific fire. The men in the trenches are reported as being waist deep in water.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—A dispatch to the Central News from Berlin, forwarded by way of Copenhagen, says that the Austrian general staff has ordered an offensive movement with all possible force against the Serbians in the hope of ending the Balkan phase of the war before winter sets in and so relieving further Austrian troops for service against the Russians.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Fifteen persons were killed in Courtrai, Belgium, by a British aviator who flew over the city, according to an assertion made today by a German paper published in Brussels.

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—In the western theater of war the Germans today held their positions everywhere, the war office announced this afternoon. The allies' attacks, south of Dixmude, were as repulsed, it was stated. Less violence characterized the fighting on the Belgian coast. In the Argonne region, the Germans are reported to have remained on the offensive.

Weather conditions are referred to as "very bad," with sleet, snow, hail and rain.

CONSTANTINOPLE (via Berlin and The Hague), Nov. 16.—A sweeping Turkish victory over the Russians in the Caucasus mountains was claimed in an official bulletin tonight. It claimed that the Russians lost heavily in men, supplies and ammunition.

LAUDER FORWARDS 432 PAIRS SOCKS TO ARMY

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—Harry Lauder, Scotch comedian, arrived in Chicago yesterday and spent most of the Sabbath in packing and mailing up a huge wooden case, into which went thirty-six dozen pairs of heavy woolen socks.

The case was consigned to army headquarters in London. The case were knitted by Mrs. Lauder, Mrs. William Morris, wife of Lauder's American manager, and other women of the party, through almost incessant work, beginning last August in Australia.

POPE APPEALS FOR PEACE OF EUROPE

Germans Claim to Hold Their Own in West; Turkish Victory Announced

ROME, Nov. 16.—The Pope issued an encyclical today appealing for the peace of Europe. He attributed the war to a lack of mutual tolerance, contempt for authority, class injustice, and worship of material wealth.

GRAND OPERA TO OPEN DESPITE GREAT WAR

Miracle of Persuasion Needed to Secure Foreign Song Birds From Europe

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—After surmounting great obstacles occasioned by the European war, the Metropolitan Opera House opened its season tonight with the singing of Verdi's "Un Ballo in Maschera." Caruso, Destinn, Hempel, Amato and other familiar artists were in the cast and Toscanini wielded the conductor's baton.

Tonight's premiere is regarded almost in the light of a miracle for wonderful work had to be done in persuading the governments of warring nations to allow the operatic stars to sing in this country instead of carrying a rifle in Europe.

At the outbreak of the war, agents of Giulio Gatti-Casazza, the impresario, were stationed in Paris and Munich. Gatti-Casazza himself went to Milan and from there directed operations to keep his singers from going to war.

Telegrams and letters were sent back and forth every day until all the singers were located. Then pressure was brought to bear upon foreign official circles with the result that passports were finally issued and the main body consisting of sixteen principals and seventy-four members of the chorus arrived early this month on the White Star liner Canopic by way of Boston and a special train to this city.

NEWPORT BEACH KETTNER INVITED TO LOOK OVER HARBOR

Newport News: President F. W. Beckwith presided over the Chamber of Commerce meeting held in the city hall, Tuesday evening. Others present were: W. W. Wilson, Guy S. Curtis, Al B. Roussele, L. S. Wilkinson and Max R. Wallace.

J. A. Porter reported on public improvements that the amount of building permits issued since October 13th amounted to $1925.

An invitation was extended to Congressman Kettner to spend a day looking over Newport Bay before his return to Washington, and the secretary was given permission to spend any amount up to $10 for telegrams communicating with Mr. Kettner on the subject. As it was reported that the secretary of the Associated Chambers of Commerce had received a telegram from General Kingman saying that the city could go ahead with jetty plans before the harbor lines were adopted, the secretary was instructed to obtain a copy of the telegram sent General Kingman by J. C. Metzgar, secretary of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, to see what request had been made of the war department.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervousness and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Advertisement.

VILLA PROTESTS EVACUATION VERA CRUZ

U. S. Move Would Prove of Much Advantage to Carranza, is Rebel Claim

EL PASO, Nov. 16.—Protests against turning the port of Vera Cruz over to the Carranza government are being made by representatives of the Gutierrez factions in Mexico. The protests are being supplemented by protests by Americans having interests in Mexico. From Aguas Calientes reports were received of vigorous protests, which amount practically to threats. If the port is turned over to the Carranza faction it will be regarded as evidence of favoritism and the Villa supporters will withdraw the protection they have been giving American interests.

Carranzistas on the border are elated over the announcement that the American troops will withdraw shortly. It is seen by the Carranza supporters that with Carranza in possession of Vera Cruz it will be possible for him to make a successful campaign against Villa by enabling the Carranza army to get abundant ammunition and food supplies. The truce declared to have been arranged by the Aguas Calientes convention and the Gutierrez government is not expected to prevent fighting during the twenty days designated. Villa is continuing to move his army toward Tampico.

NEWPORT BEACH NEWS DISCUSSES HARBOR SITUATION AND CITY'S PLANS

Newport News: The article in the last issue of the News, from the pen of Dr. Albert T. Soiland, in which he criticized the delay in the improvement of the entrance to Newport Harbor, is worthy of attention. Dr. Soiland is a man whose integrity is questioned by no one. He has no axe to grind with the improvement of Newport Bay, and no real estate to sell. But he has always been ready to lend his influence to any matter looking to the improvement of Newport Beach and bay, and as one of the officials of the South Coast Yacht Club, he has seen the wonderful possibilities as a pleasure and commercial harbor. But while there has been a vexatious delay in the matter of the commencing of the improvement, the fault does not rest entirely or to any great extent with local boosters.

The generally accepted plan of harbor development here is to have a harbor that will be of public benefit when it is completed, and not one dominated by railroad, steamship and other big corporate interests. With that end in view, an agreement has been made with the large realty owners on the shores of the bay to donate to the city nearly half a mile of water frontage, in the event that the city votes bonds and expends $100,000 on the construction of a jetty at the entrance to the bay.

In order to get this frontage where it will be of real value it is necessary for the harbor lines of the bay to be outlined, and it is this matter that is now delaying the work on Newport harbor. The map has been to Washington and back not less than five times, and yet the lines for the portion of the bay in which the city is most interested have not been approved. Definite action is expected on the matter shortly, and then the city will be in a condition to have grant deeds for harbor frontage placed in escrow contingent on the voting of the jetty bonds. It is apparent to anyone that a much better bargain can be struck with the land companies before the voting of jetty bonds than afterward, so the matter of the harbor lines is of paramount importance at the present time.

It is expected that immediately on receipt of advice from Washington

A HAPPIER CHILD IN JUST A FEW HOURS

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "Fruit Laxative." Children love it, and it can't cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Advertisement.

WEAK FLOW OF GAS FOILS HIM IN HIS ATTEMPT AT DEATH

Philip Rhinehardt is not dead. It is no fault of his, however, for he tried. The gas supply failing in a meter regulated by a 25-cent piece is the reason. Rhinehardt was still conscious when officers entered his room Saturday and put an end to his self-destructive plans.

Rhinehardt is a barber and for some time he has been employed at a shop on East Fourth near the railroad, as seems to have become dependent over trouble with his divorced wife, and he turned to heavy drinking. His friends say he had been partaking of much of the cup that in his case failed to cheer.

For two or three days he had been in his room, refusing to answer knocks at his door or to engage in conversation. Saturday Constable Heard was informed that the man was attempting suicide. Heard and Deputy Sheriff Dean went to the man's room at 914 East Fourth street. They found Rhinehardt in bed with the covers over his head. One end of a tube connected with an open gas jet was beneath the covers. The flow of gas, examined later by the officers, seemed to be very weak, and it was explained that the meter on the place is one of the kind in which a quarter is put to buy a quarter's worth of gas. The quarter's worth was about used up.

Rhinehardt was still conscious. At first he refused to get up and dress, but persuasion changed his mind. He was taken to jail for safe-keeping.

Agriculturist Says Problem of Nutrition Should be Carefully Studied

Prof. Herbert John Webber, director of the State Citrus Experiment Station at Riverside, spoke before the City Club yesterday on "Possibilities of Horticulture in California." Following his address there was an interesting discussion, and many practical inquiries were answered regarding horticultural problems.

Prof. Webber termed the growing of fruits a "gentleman's subject," and pointed out how widely diversified is the interest in this subject.

"The problem of a country permanently succeeding that has to depend upon irrigation has been seriously questioned by various authorities and in various countries," said the speaker, "but this simply means that we of California must apply ourselves to a solution of the problem, and the evolving of methods that will definitely determine permanent success."

"We are discovering new laws and new methods in agriculture and horticulture more extensively than any other locality. While this state is old, under certain comparisons, we really are pioneering all over the state in agriculture and horticulture."

The speaker declared that fertilization is a great element of success, and that this is resolving itself to a scientific basis. Potash alone for young citrus groves he declared unnecessary, but stated that nitrogen is the main factor that is lacking in our California soils.

"We can get the greater part of this nitrogen from the growing of cover crops," said the speaker, "and I cannot conceive why every man who grows oranges should not grow a good cover crop. When alfalfa gets down to as low as $7.50 a ton, it is worth that for a nitrogen fertilizer for our groves."

The speaker declared that California has tremendous opportunities for the hybridization of fruits, and stated that he believes this state eventually will produce the finest fruits of many kinds that are to be found in the world, and that many new varieties will be developed.

The Collins brothers have recently rented the Goldsmith ranch which consists of about 240 acres. They expect to put it out in sugar beets and beans.

Wednesday evening a large crowd met at the local church and gave their pastor and his wife an informal reception. A good program was carried out consisting of songs and recitations. The male quartet sang several numbers which were enjoyed very much. Several were surprised to know that Talbert had such talent. Refreshments of cream and cake were served. The church was beautifully and artistically decorated by the ladies of the church.

TONIGHT WILL HEAR ANY OBJECTIONS TO RE-NAMING STREETS

At its meeting tonight the City Trustees will receive any objections that citizens may have to the proposal of the city board to change the names of a number of streets for the sake of securing uniformity and to do away with a certain amount of confusion that comes from the fact that a street continuation does not bear the same name as the street. The changes proposed are:

G to Minter, F to Lacy, E to Garfield, Cypress avenue to South Bush, Dept to Fruit, Orchard to West Tenth, Nakomis to North Shelton, Bates to North Baker, D to Poinsettia, Hannah to North Flower, C to Santiago.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.—Advertisement.

THE SECOND NUMBER Y.M.C.A. COURSE IS THURSDAY, NOV. 19

Edward Amherst Ott, one of the best American lecturers, is to occupy the stage at the Grand Opera House on Thursday evening of this week in the second number of the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. entertainment course. Concerning Mr. Ott's personality and lectures, the following is reported:

EDWARD AMHERST OTT.
The popular lectures which Edward Amherst Ott is giving on the Lyceum platform are bearing fruit in the way of advanced legislation for the betterment of the American people. His lecture on "Sour Grapes," which treats of marriage and divorce, has been given nearly 2,000 times. In one of the states where it was given the legislator who introduced a reform marriage bill said he got his inspiration to do so from hearing Mr. Ott's lecture. But whether he delivers this lecture or one of his other subjects he is always alike forceful, entertaining and inspiring. He has appeared before more than 3,000 audiences in America, and more than 2,500 copies of his books have been sold. American audiences can scarce get enough of this man and his purposeful oratory.

Every lecture should answer one of the fundamental inquiries of the mind. If a lecture is also humorous and highly entertaining, so much the better. Although known as the purposeful orator and author, Mr. Ott combines much of humor and entertainment in each of his lectures.

For two years Mr. Ott was president of the International Lyceum association, and he has done much for the Lyceum and Chautauqua movement in general throughout the country.

A SERIOUS PROBLEM

It is extremely doubtful if the movement for another state-wide vote on prohibition in 1916 receives anything like the newspaper support given to the campaign just closed. This situation is forecasted in the following editorial from the Stockton Record, which was one of the staunch backers of the "dry" campaign just closed:

The officials of the Dry Federation in the south announce their determination to start another campaign without delay. It is doubtful whether such a plan will appeal to the rank and file of people who wish the prohibition cause better fortune than to be made unpopular by impolitic persistence.

To win at the polls, a measure must be backed by organized enthusiasm. In the face of defeat, many people are inclined to let the majority rule until the defeated can at least get their breath and bearings.

Judging the situation from a semi-political standpoint, it appears unwise to solidify the saloon, brewery and wine interests at a time when not all of their opponents are ready to resume the fight.

The wine men declare that they intend to assist in abating the objectionable features of the saloon business. It would seem wise to let the liquor forces enjoy the excitement of an internal contest. The anti can improve the time by conducting a campaign of education.

Furthermore, although the people of the state rejected the prohibition amendment, they also rejected No. 47, thereby leaving the power of the people over the liquor traffic unimpaired. Something is due this fair disposition by tens of thousands of voters. Although rejecting prohibition, they rejected also prohibition of prohibition. It would seem desirable to cultivate rather than to antagonize this class of voters.

Of one thing we may be sure—the liquor traffic is not going to disappear; it is not going to evaporate or fly away. It will be here as an object lesson for educational work.

The radical dry folk who would immediately resume the attack are as lacking in tact and common sense as those wine men who are working against men and papers which did not agree with them in the late campaign.

Calm public sentiment (without abating one iota of conviction or principle) will not ratify the acts of extremists.

And the Riverside Press, consistently and efficiently a "dry" paper for perhaps forty years, confesses to a good deal of sympathy with the views of its Stockton contemporary. The Press says:

It is evident from the vote polled on the prohibition question on November 3 that a thorough campaign of education on the issue is needed in all that part of the state north of Tehachapi. Southern California is in better shape, but even here there are weak spots where a lot of work needs to be done. Until there is a change of sentiment, a campaign is hopeless. Is it not better to strengthen the local option law and conduct a campaign of education under the provisions of that law until such time as the sentiment of the people has been more fully crystallized against the saloon? Then a statewide campaign could be undertaken with good hope of success. The time for that may be as soon as 1918; the Press doubts very much if the conditions will be ripe in 1916.

BROADEN CITRUS MARKETS

The department of commerce, at Washington, has requested United States consuls in South America and Australia to make report on prospects of finding markets there for California citrus fruits. It is hoped to sell in these new fields, a large part of the citrus output of this state which ordinarily goes to Europe.

The effects of these inquiries and the broadening of markets that may result therefrom, may be lastingly beneficial. Once these far-away countries use California oranges and lemons, the impression made may be so favorable that steady demand may be created for these Golden State products.

Not only may the markets for citrus fruits be broadened, at this juncture, but it would seem to be an opportune time to expand the markets for California deciduous fruits. As this state increases its orchard acreage, it will need marketing opportunities commensurate with its fruit yield. It were well to create demand for California orchard crops in as many parts of the world as possible. A good plan is, to have the market demand ahead of the supply. This will command remunerative prices for California fruits and encourage the expansion of horticultural development in this state.

POLY BATTLES PASADENA TO 0-0 TIE IN TERRIFIC FRACAS

"George Stallings" Hall and His "Braves" Make Crown City Crew Sit Up and Take Notice—Result May Demand Post Season Game to Settle the Championship

Pasadena came out of the wilderness of the Crown City and Devil Canyon Saturday and had the pleasure of putting her piekiss artists through their first real football game of the season with the Poly high team here to the tune of 0 to 0.

The Santa Anas gave the foe something to think about from the first minute of play. The battle was one of the greatest ever fought on a local gridiron.

Three different times did Irvine try for field goals but the distances on two occasions were too great for the mighty Irvine toe and on the third occasion the play was beautifully glued by the opponents.

"Little Spud" Morrison, the sturdy batter of the Poly squad, was the real hero and star player of the day. He was practically the only man who could make successful runs and gain yards at every try. He juggled the spheroid two out of every three times the locals called a play. And one of the most remarkable things about his work was that he emerged from the fracas seemingly as strong as when he started. It was due as much to his nimble brain as it was to his active feet that Poly was able to hold down the invaders so effectively.

Burkett Saves the Day Holmgren of Santa Ana again upset the LePage's and went plunging through the alleged-to-be-impenetrable Pasadena line for quite some few yards.

Conn, the stellar half of Pasadena, made a long end run and went through the entire interference of Santa Ana but was finally halted by Burkett, who made a flying tackle and saved the day for the locals.

As a general thing the Santa Ana warriors excelled the Crown City bunch, both in the defensive and offensive. The only way Pasadena was able to make yards was by long end runs.

The ball was in alien territory most of the time although on one occasion the bulb was dangerously close to the Santa Ana goal, but Hall's scrappers held the invaders for cows and the ball was lost to the locals.

To Coach Hall, no less than to his grim crew of fighters, is due the credit of the remarkable showing that Santa Ana has made, not only in the terrifically bitter conflict of Saturday, but in every game played this season. By his work, and by the work of his squad, has Hall truly earned the reputation of being the George Stallings and his men the Boston Braves of Southern California high school football. Taking a squad of men, only three of whom had ever played the game before, and making it into a machine such as the Poly team now is, is a feat which but few coaches could have successfully accomplished.

Crowd is Largest Yet The crowd was by far the largest ever present at a football game in this city. The new bleachers, with a seating capacity of 300, were entirely inadequate to accommodate the Pasadena aggregation of rooters and others who jammed the three sides of the field. The gridiron was lined with automobiles and a large number were parked outside the grounds.

The Santa Ana section of the bleachers was filled and the entire enclosure packed. It is estimated that there were at least 2000 persons present. The school spirit shown by the local rooters was remarkable. Never a play was made without great bursts of applause.

Coach Cheeley's second team showed great improvement over the last time it was seen in action and succeeded in holding down the Crown City seconds to a 0 to 0 tie as a result of which another game will be played by the two teams Saturday at Pasadena.

How It Stands

The Los Angeles Times discusses the championship situation as follows: Long Beach high school's 6 to 3 victory over Shutt's Chaffey Union eleven of Ontario, and the tieing of Santa Ana and Pasadena Saturday, throws the interscholastic championship prospects into a peculiar tangle.

These games, turning out as they did, again throw Pasadena and Long Beach and Santa Ana—the "big three"—into the running for first honors.

Not until Santa Ana and Chaffey meet at Santa Ana and Long Beach and Pasadena clash at Pasadena Thanksgiving Day will the situation be straightened out.

Should Santa Ana go down to defeat before Chaffey and Long Beach subdue Pasadena Thanksgiving Day Long Beach would win the championship by one-half game. Long Beach would then have only lost one game, while Santa Ana and Pasadena would have a defeat and a half charged against them. According to the rules under which the Southern California Interscholastic League is conducted a tie game counts a half a game won and a half a game lost.

If Santa Ana defeats Chaffey, and Long Beach succeeds in downing the Crown City eleven, the clergymen will carry away the honors with but a half a game lost. Should Santa Ana win from Chaffey and Pasadena defeats Long Beach, as the dope would indicate as the likely outcome, Pasadena and Santa Ana would be tied for the championship and a post season game on a neutral gridiron would probably be necessary to determine the winner.

There is still one more angle from which to dope the championship, and that is from Pasadena's point of view. Should Chaffey win from Santa Ana and Pasadena beat Long Beach, the Crown City contingent would win the flag by a half a game.

In the tenth and final session things looked rosy for the locals when Leake amassed a buxom single. West, as per his usual custom, struck out. Freeman brandished the bludgeon for a single but Crawford struck out and Salverson popped to Schubert.

WILL IT LAST? Fresno Republican

Will the Progressive movement continue? Will water flow down hill?

To be sure, water does not always flow down hill. Sometimes it backs up, through sloughs and bayous. Sometimes it is checked, behind dams or shallows, or some of it gets isolated in ponds. Sometimes it is diverted in channels around the hill. And all in channels around the hill. And all in channels around the hill.

But, nevertheless, water does run down hill, and all of it ultimately obeys the law of its being.

The Progressive movement is subject to the same vicissitudes. In California it is moving irresistibly on. In the east, it is for the moment dammed up or diverted into strange channels.

In some places it may make these channels its own, and then they will no longer be strange. In others, like Pennsylvania, it will rise until it sweeps the obstructions before it. Anything may happen except one thing—that all the water shall back up all the streams, or that the main current of American public life shall go the ways of reaction. And since the inevitable is bound to happen, the question just how or when it shall happen need not give us much concern.

California especially, conscious that it has done its part, and assured that, whatever form the future takes, California will be the leader in it, may very well rest satisfied in its own accomplishment.

Why are we so sure that we are dealing with permanent and inevitable forces?

Because in all history nothing that all the thinkers favored ever failed of final recognition. And the thinkers—practically every professional student of social problems in the world—are all united on the Progressive side. Because great leaders have never lacked for followers, and the Progressive movement, and even the Progressive party in its most restricted sense, now number the majority of the real leaders of American public life and thought. Because no movement toward a larger democracy has ever permanently failed. Because it was decreed in the nature of things that this twentieth century which inherited the eighteenth century's victory over tyrants and superstition and the nineteenth century's victory over nature and time and space, should find its more difficult task in man's victory over himself—in the organization of human forces for human results, as all other forces are organized already. To doubt this is to doubt that the forces of progress, which have operated until now, will continue. To regret it is to mark one's self a spiritual citizen of a former age. To oppose it is to sweep back the sea.

Will the Progressive movement fail?

Will the procession of the equinoxes stop, because you have not yet learned to understand it?

APPLE SHOW AND FRUIT FAIR BEGINS TODAY

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 16.—The seventh annual National Apple and Fruit Products Fair opened here today with hundreds of choice apples on display from every fruit district in Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia. The show occupies a total floor space of 900,000 square feet and includes over seventy varieties of apples.

The most important feature of this year's show will be held on Thursday, when the congress will attempt to launch a nation-wide organization for the handling of low standard apples to utilize as by-products. This plan also includes the formation of a co-operative selling organization to dispose of these by-products, which include canned, evaporated and other forms of apple utilization, no less than sixty different apple by-products being on exhibit here.

Favors City Managers City managers to replace the mayors as the chief executives in our municipalities were recommended by the National Municipal League, which met recently in New York city and at which President Lowell of Harvard University presided. The committee predicted that the time would come when every city in the United States would have a city manager for its chief executive, who would be chosen by the aldermen under a commission form of administration.

The municipal program for American cities was prepared by the committee, together with a model charter, to enable cities to adopt the new form of government.

A LIVE SPORT LETTER By Hal Sheridan

(Written for the United Press) PRINCETON, N. J.—The Yale Bulldog invaded the Tiger's lair today for the annual gridiron battle. It was the first time Yale has appeared in the huge new football stadium that was formally opened this fall with the Princeton victory over Dartmouth.

Between 10,000 Blue and Orange and Black rooters were in the stands an hour or more before the time of the game. It was expected that the full quota of 30,000 or more would be in their seats when the referee blew the whistle to start the thirty-ninth annual football game between the two great eastern universities.

The stands were a riot of color. In the central seats allotted respectively to Yale and Princeton were bands which vied with the rooters and singers to keep the old grads and spectators interested until the teams lined up.

In the thirty-eight years that Yale and Princeton have never once failed to meet on the gridiron Yale has won twenty-seven and Princeton nine games. There have been two scoreless ties—in 1881 and in 1906.

In 1912 the teams quit even up after one of the greatest struggles in the history of football between them, the score being 6-6. Last year Tiger and Bulldog again quit even up with the score 3-3.

Since 1903 Princeton has won only one game—that in 1911 when all that saved Yale from a shut-out was a goal from field which made the final tally Princeton 6, Yale 3.

At 11:30 the guests were called to dinner. Those seated at the bountiful repast were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Shaw and son, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mr. Lee Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. George Harris and family, Mr. James Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bushey of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Phillips of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Havens of Santa Ana.

Week of Prayer

The week of prayer and self-denial week conducted by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church South will be held November 17-21 in Spurgeon Memorial church. This is one of the means whereby the ladies are raising a special collection to carry on the work in the foreign field. All the ladies of the congregation are cordially invited to attend, and all members are requested to be present.

There are several reasons why the women of this society work and give. One of these is because it is wonderful work to uplift the more helpless classes. Another is to rescue fallen girls and restore them to worthy womanhood, and still another is to provide homes for the homeless and destitute and to find employment for the unemployed. All are asked to give a helping hand.

Summer Shop Reception

Miss Nelle Sumner of the Summer Shop gave a public reception at her art shop on Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings, which was attended by scores of persons of artistic taste in Santa Ana and locally. More than four hundred names were registered in Miss Sumner's autograph book, and there were a large number who attended who did not have an opportunity to register on account of the crowd.

The shop was beautiful, the arrangement of the pictures, flowers, Christmas cards and souvenirs of every description being most artistic. Many things for the holidays never seen before in Santa Ana were on display and the ladies who visited the shop were enthusiastic in their praise and admiration.

Past Matrons to Meet

The Past Matrons' Association, O. E. S., will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Prince L. Tople, 530 South Main street. A large attendance of the members is hoped for.

An appetizing turkey dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Adams in Tustin yesterday to celebrate the birthdays of their two pretty little daughters, Marjorie and Aileen, aged one and three years, respectively, their birthdays occurring November 14 and 16.

The Adams home was beautifully decorated with Cello Bruner roses.

As the fifteenth of the month is the birthday of Mr. J. H. Pink and white carnations and ferns were used on the table and in the living room.

The place cards contained fortunes for the guests according to the months in which their respective birthdays came, and much merriment was caused by the reading of the fortune cards.

Those seated at the table besides the honorees were Mrs. Mary Garlock and Mr. Ruben Moyer of Hemet, Mrs. J. H. Machander, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Thacker, Dorothy and Florence Thacker and Ernest Machander.

After a pleasant afternoon spent in music and conversation, the guests departed hoping that many more happy birthdays might be spent by the quartet of honorees.

FOR FEDERATION OFFICER

Mrs. Lillian Pray Palmer is Entertained by Old-Time Kansas Friends

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chapman of 316 East Sixth street on Saturday evening informally entertained in honor of Mrs. Lillian Pray Palmer, president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Palmer was an old schoolmate of Mrs. Chapman at Westmoreland, Kansas, and those asked to meet her were all old friends in that place. Twenty years had elapsed since any of the party had met Mrs. Palmer, and the time was spent in reminiscences of old days. All the old friends are proud of Mrs. Palmer's brilliant success in club work.

The house was adorned with roses and smilax and delicious light refreshments were served. Mrs. Chapman was assisted by Mrs. G. W. Etchison. "Auld Lang Syne" was sung before the company separated. Prior to the evening affair Mrs. Palmer was Mrs. Chapman's supper guest, just the family being at the table.

Those invited by Mr. and Mrs. Chapman to meet Mrs. Palmer were Messrs. and Mesdames P. G. Etchison, S. J. Chapman, G. W. Etchison, Bruce Scholes, Joel Crites, C. C. Chapman, C. C. Bonebrake, Vivian Fenley, McCarter, Miss May Scholes and W. M. Clark of Santa Ana; Messrs and Mesdames A. A. Richards, Sr., I. W. Barnett, Richard Burkett, Guy Richards, John Richards, E. M. Chapman of Orange; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Richards, of Olive; Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Freeman, of Placentia; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Shiner, of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. James Lodgson of Yorba Linda.

A Real Surprise

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ballard, 2038 Hickey street, was the scene of a pleasant affair on last Friday evening, the thirteenth of November, when L. M. Ballard and Miss Alta Hoffman were the honorees of a jolly surprise, the peaceful home being invaded by a happy party of fourteen people that completely took possession of the Ballard residence.

Fortunately the invading party was bent on a joyous errand, having arrived in force to aid Mr. Ballard and Miss Hoffman in celebrating the fateful combination of "Friday and the 13th." Entertaining games whiled away the evening. Delicious refreshments of punch, fruit and cake were served before bidding them good night.

Those enjoying the evening besides the involuntary host and hostess were the Misses Katherine and Georgia Bybee, Jewell Hunton, Dorothy Davenport, Helen Hoffman, Messrs. Ralph and Carl Beltz, Scott Prather, Thomas Lovelady, Merr Hunt, Millard Foster, Marion Burr.

Art Study Club

The Art Study Club will meet Wednesday evening, November 18, with Mrs. Clarkson, corner of Ninth and Spurgeon streets.

Owing to her absence from the city, Miss Mitchell will not be able to give her talk as announced at the last meeting, but an interesting program has been planned and an enjoyable evening is anticipated.

For His Birthday

W. L. Grubb was the central figure at a small informal dinner party given on Saturday evening at the Grubb home on Edgewood road in honor of his birthday. The dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. George Bauerston, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Reeves and Mr. and Mrs. Grubb. The evening following was spent with whist.

Your Common Sense Should Teach Teach You to Wear Duofold Underwear

Combines all the protection of wool and all the comfort of cotton.

Duofold is a double garment, made of two fabrics which together weigh much less than ordinary underwear. The outer fabric is warm, light weight wool. The inner lining is soft, thin cotton. No wool touches the skin. The cotton lining absorbs the moisture of the body and protects the flesh from the irritating wool. The woolen outer fabric repels the Winter's cold and retains the natural heat of the body.

The two fabrics are joined by wide stitching through which the air circulates and keeps the garment fresh and dry.

Duofold keeps you warm, but it doesn't scratch like all-wool underwear, the cotton inner fabric is soft as a rose.

And Duofold doesn't pinch or shrink like all-wool underwear. We carry Duofold in Union and two piece suits in all sizes.

For Men at $3, $3.50, $4.
Boys, 4 to 14 years, $1.50.

AMUSEMENTS

This week at Clune's is an exceptionally good bill. The feature acts are: Millar Bros., Pearl Rosenthal, the Goys and their dogs, high class novelty equilibrists. The feature in the "movies" is Mr. Charles Chaplin, leading in a roaring comedy, "Dough and Dynamite," and other photoplays such as "Get Out and Get Under." Geo. Ades, comedy motion picture.

Grand Opera House
The announcement of the local presentation of the success of two continents, "Baby Mine," at the Grand Opera House tonight, should be the means of packing the house to the limit. No one who has watched the fortunes of "Baby Mine" will deny that it is one big unmistakable hit. It ran for one solid year at Daly's Theater, New York, and is now meeting with enormous success in London, its second year in that city. As a fun producer "Baby Mine" need acknowledge no peers and it is said to be an unbroken delirium of laughter. It is no easy trick to write a genuinely funny comedy, but Margaret Mayo so admirably constructed "Baby Mine" that it fairly bristles with ideas that are ingenious and clever and its incidents follow each other on a Gatling-gun plan.

"The Pursuit of the Phantom"
The latest release by Bosworth is of special interest as it is a play written by Mr. Bosworth himself. It is called "The Pursuit of the Phantom." The writing end of the moving picture business is by no means new to Hobart Bosworth, although this is his first five reel drama. He is the author of over a hundred photoplays, all great successes, and is a master not only of photoplay technique, but of the creation of strong dramatic plots, of extraordinary screen value.

"The Pursuit of the Phantom" is a romance of four people. Two find happiness and youth in love and simple naturalness. Two lose both happiness and youth in pursuing them along the paths of wealth and ambition. The strong contrast in which the story abounds afford opportunity for situations of intense interest and settings of rare charm and loveliness. Mr. Bosworth's masterly direction has made the most of this.

This production was taken at Laguna Beach this summer and should be of great interest to all Santa Ana people for that reason.

"The Pursuit of the Phantom" will be played at the Temple Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

UP TO PROPERTY OWNERS

Newport News: Property owners at Balboa have yet shown no haste in the matter of getting the ocean front bulkhead and sidewalk built, in readiness for the street lighting system. The city has signed up the contract with the Engstrom Co. for the construction of the system, but this does not entail the building of bulkheads or sidewalks in which to set the lamp posts. It is either a case of property owners at Balboa getting busy and building the sidewalk and bulkhead along the ocean front or getting no street lights.

THIRTEEN ONLY ABLE TO SERVE ON GRAND JURY

Special Venire Needed to Pick Out Nineteen Men for Inquisition

Out of thirty-five men summoned on the grand jury venire, only thirteen will be sworn in. The venire appeared this morning before Judge Thomas, but from among them twenty-two presented legitimate reasons as to why they should not be sworn in. Judge Thomas ordered a special venire of fifteen, to be in court at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning from which six talesmen will be secured to make up the grand jury of nineteen.

The thirteen who remained after this morning's investigation are Bruce Anson, Orangethorpe; W. F. Crist, El Modena; E. A. Day, East Anaheim; E. W. Dean, Fullerton; Jacob Fisher, Santa Ana; J. P. Greeley, Balboa; J. M. Gunnett, Anaheim; B. W. Jerome, Irvine; Samuel Kraemer, Placentia; J. N. Osborn, Santa Ana; R. D. Richards, Bay City; Fred Seifert, Santa Ana; F. H. Wheeler, West Anaheim. The men excused by the judge, some through exemptions and some by reason of the fact that service would seriously interfere with business, are D. L. Anderson, S. L. Blodgett, B. F. Bryan, W. H. H. Clayton, S. M. Cradick, J. H. Encarl, A. C. Fletcher, J.

O. Forster, D. W. Hasson, G. F. Huntington, W. H. Kennedy, Jr., E. B. Luntford, John A. McFadden, W. P. Morse, Harry Oldfield, C. J. Porter, J. J. Pye, J. G. Quick, William Starbuck and T. O. Walker.

The grand jury will be completed tomorrow morning, a foreman appointed and instructions read by the judge.

Are New Citizens

This morning Judge West and Immigration Commissioner Jones had a class of petitioners for naturalization. Citizenship papers were granted to Lily A. and Edward Jones, Richard G. O. Parris, Robert Bosshart, Garman D. Bots and Charles A. Lunt.

Paul Schoebel's petition was denied because inquiry showed that he had been in this country only four years. Paul J. Lotze failed because one of his witnesses had known him but three years, when the law requires five. Samuel Ansell did not get through because over seven years have elapsed since he took out his first papers, the law requiring the final papers to be issued within seven years from the time of taking out first papers.

Julius Nerling will have to start over again because of a mistake that he made in his petition. He is of German parentage, but was born in Russia. In stating his place of nativity he gave it as Germany instead of Russia.

The clerk was instructed to notify John J. Allee to proceed with his petition or it will be dropped from the calendar. Wm. Gatjens failed to appear to be examined on his petition, and the matter was continued.

Goes Over a Day

Mouret, charged with passing a check belonging to another man, has applied for probation. His case went over until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Mouret bought a lot of perfume from the White Cross drug store, and gave the check, which was issued by a sugar factory to an employee, in payment.

Notice of Sale

Notice of sale is recorded in which the Hub Cigar factory passes from Juie Goepper to C. C. Brown.

Attachment Case

There has been recorded a writ of attachment in a Los Angeles case in which H. T. Trueblood is plaintiff and J. O. McBurney and others defendants. Property near Orange is attached.

Hearing is Set

The Board of Supervisors has received notice from the Railroad Commission that November 25 is the time set for the hearing of the petition of the Long Beach Consolidated Gas Company to exercise its franchise rights under a franchise bought from Orange county. The gas company expects to supply gas to Seal Beach.

LOSES AN EYE AS RESULT OF AN ACCIDENT

Santa Ana Contractor Hit by Shot While Hunting in Trabuco Yesterday

The accidental discharge of a shotgun near the tin mines in the Trabuco canyon yesterday morning resulted in the loss of the left eye of A. M. Boyd, 1501 North Ross street, this city. In the party with Boyd were Al Goff and Grover Besser, neither of whom are able to state in what manner the accident occurred. It is thought that both Goff and Besser discharged their guns simultaneously and that a shot from one of the guns accidentally lodged in Boyd's eye.

Boyd was able to drive his automobile part of the way home. Half way between Santa Ana and the tin mines the party was met by Dr. C. H. Brooks, who brought the injured man in to this city and attended him. This morning Boyd was taken to Los Angeles, where he consulted a specialist.

The Los Angeles specialist was emphatic in declaring that the eye would have to be removed. Boyd and Dr. Brooks returned to this city at noon today. Boyd went to the Santa Ana Hospital where the operation was performed at about 3 o'clock this afternoon. Three or four other shot struck Boyd in the face.

Boyd was able to drive his automobile part of the way home.

erable per cent of the crop had to be carried over, the last of which was disposed of only a few weeks ago.

While the walnut crop this year was considerably below normal, averaging a little better than 60 per cent, prices have been the highest in the history of the industry, 16½ cents being paid for No. 1's.

James Fay, secretary and manager of the local association, reports that at least 90 per cent of the nuts handled by his concern were of No. 1 grade. He also stated that there had been fewer culls than ever before, and even these had been disposed of at a good figure.

The nuts this year were marketed through the agency of the California Walnut Growers' Association which has brought the marketing expense down about 50 per cent over that obtaining under the old system of selling through brokers.

Close to 175 tons of nuts were sold through the association and probably as many more were sold by independent growers.

Taking everything into consideration, the crop in the Anaheim district has been good, and will return to the growers nearly as much as did the big crop of last year.

A. A. U. WILL DISCUSS RADICAL LEGISLATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Many important questions pertaining to track and field athletics will be decided in the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union which opened today at the Waldorf-Astoria. Several radical amendments to the constitution of the body have been offered by the various associations affiliated with the union. Inasmuch as notice of these amendments were sent out to delegates some time ago it is expected that they will be prepared to debate the propositions in vigorous fashion.

One of the amendments proposed will permit athletes from West Point and Annapolis to compete in Amateur track and field sports without the formality of registration. This legislation was suggested by the southern association.

Some delegates are hopeful that the sixteen-pound shot will go to be substituted by the twelve-pound shot. Others propose to abolish the pole vault for distance and the fifty-six-pound weight throw for height.

Among the official business to be decided is the request of San Francisco for the privilege of holding the national athletic championship in 1915 at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. The coast officials are anxious to emphasize the athletic and sporting feature as much as possible and hope that they may get the sanction for the "blue ribbon" event.
